Derechos de Aduana.
Buenos Aires, Abril 28 de 1882.
Al Señor Administrador de Rentas Nacionales de la Capital.
Por el articulo 10 de la Ley de Aduana se ha concedido al comercio que los derechos de importacion cuando excedan de doscientos pesos fuertes pueden pagarse con letras a noventa dias de plazo, con una garantia a satisfacion de los administradores de rentas respectivos.
Esta concesion de la ley no puede convertirse en manera alguna en medio de defraudar los derechos del fisco.
No puede consentirse que un comerciante saque del dominio de la Aduana la mercaderia que por si misma garante de una manera eficas los derechos de importacion, dando en cambio de estos un documento que no piensa o no podria satisfacer presentando al mismo tiempo una garantia illusoria.
Por eso la ley ha exigido que la garantia sea estimada y admitida unicamente por el Administrador de Rentas, que es el que esta en aptitud de apreciar en cada caso si las firmas que se le ofrecen pueden, procediendo prudentemente, equipararse a la prenda real de que se desprende al entregar las mercaderias.
El articulo 14 de la ley de Contabilidad hace responsables a los encargados de la administracion de las rentas publicas de lo que dejasen de cobrar por su negligencia, y esta es otra razon por la cual la Ley de Aduana, confiere a los administradores de Rentas la facultad absoluta de apreciar y valorar las garantias que se le ofrecen, para que nunca, ni en ningun caso, puedan verse obligados a aceptar como bueno un fiador que a su juicio no ofrezca la mas completa seguridad de que la obligacion sera debidamente satisfecha a su cumplimiento.
Mientras tanto, este Ministerio ha tenido ocasion de observar que casi siempre que una letra de Aduana no es satisfecha por el comerciante que contrajo directamente la obligacion con la administracion, su garante o co-deudor solidario resulta tambien insolvente y que si se examinan los antecedentes de ese fiador se puede comprobar que siempre fue incapaz de responder al monto considerable de obligaciones solidariamente garantidas por el legado el caso de que el introductor de la mercaderia se encuentre en la imposibilidad o no quiera solventar sus obligaciones.
En su consecuencia, el Sr Presidente me encarga llame muy seriamente la atencion del Sr Administrador, sobre quien la ley hace pesar las graves responsabilidades, para que no admita como fiadores solidarios en las letras de Aduanas comerciantes que no sean notoriamente solventes y con suficiente responsabilidad, en relacion con la importancia de las obligaciones que deban garantir.
Saludo al Señor Administrador atentamente

THE RURAL SHOW

The above figure is a dazzling one. It bewilders European sheep-breeders and sets their brains woolgathering. Even Australians bow to it with intense respect, although they are well aware that they know how to knock more money out of their own fifty or sixty millions of ovines than River Platers can out of twice the number. This should not be, and it appears almost incredible that it can be, when we remember that an acre of a River Plate sheepfarm will support more than three of an Australian 'run.' Nevertheless, the fact stands. With all the advantages on our side, our great rival is always ahead of us, and, we are inclined to believe, will keep that position. It is useless to revert to the numerous causes so often assigned for the slow progress of the great pastoral industry on which all the prosperity, luxury and extravagance of this country is based. But for our sheepfarmers we might all 'shut up shop,' all except editors. Thanks to some peculiar law of nature, newspapers increase and multiply in this country almost as fast as sheep, and we are rather proud to think that, if a general earthquake should ever overtake the Plate, nine-tenths of the population would disappear with a newspapen in their hands. The newspapers, however, have done far more for politics than sheepfarming.

There is a ceremony announced for to-day, in connection with the Continental Exhibition, which ought to monopolize public attention—the opening of the Sheep Show. Yet we find very little about it in our colleagues' columns, perhaps because it is so little in itself. A prodigious fuss was made over the opening of each successive section of the Exhibition proper, and torrents of eloquence and music accompanied the events; but what ought to be the section of sections in this sheepfarming country is left to the tail of the hunt and consigned to a back seat at the corner of a street near the Palace. This is thoroughly in accordance with River Plate practice—'the cart before the horse'—and what is last shall be first, and what ought to be first shall be last. We are sorely afraid that this sheep and ram Show will not have as many visitors as the Fine Arts Gallery or the high-heeled $500 boots and $20,000 dresses department. Nevertheless, the Show, although small, is select, and we have it on the authority of the most competent judges that it will, in point of quality, far exceed any of the annual Shows of that venerable but not over-useful association, the Rural Society. This is pleasant, but the paltriness of this Sheep Show, in comparison with the enormous interests it represents, and the indifference displayed towards it by the Press and public are bad signs, and drive home the nail of conviction that, with some few noble exceptions, the estancieros of the Plate are sadly below the mark and by no means overburdened with either public or private spirit. The occasion of the Exhibition ought to have put every sheep-breeder in the Plate on his metal, as it has done all the artizans and petty manufacturers who have so bravely struggled into existence under the wings of the Club that has promoted and carried out our first Industrial Fair. The fact is, that the emasculating effects of a plethora of wealth, easily acquired, are painfully visible amongst our great rural Croesuses. We see it on every occasion that ought to bring them to the front. At the Special Wool Show in London last year, a Banda Oriental farmer beat all competitors, but there was not a single 'Buenos Aires fleece to be seen, although, in these columns, fully six months in advance, we urged the strong interest this country had in being represented at a competion in which it would naturally be expected to excel. On the occasion of the Paris Exhibition we well remember the apathy shown. The monster pyramid of Argentine wool fleeces at that Touranment of Industry would never have been there but for the superhuman exertions of Mr. Rufino Varela and some few more patriotic Argentines and foreigners interested in this Republic. The mass of our estancieros were indifferent to the grand opportunity. The Haslam meat freezing process has now opened a new and inexhaustible field for fresh enterprise on the part of River Plate stock-breeders. The Australians are already making money by it, but here the matter has not even awakened, except among a chosen few, that languid 'mañana-like' interest that is so racy of the soil.

It is not to be wondered at, therefore, that the great staple and industry of the country is represented on such a small scale at the Exhibition. The excellence of the exhibits, however, may make up for their paltry numbers. In any case, the few spirited exhibitors who have come forward on the occasion are entitled to public thanks as noble exceptions. The progress of this country in sheep-breeding has undoubtedly been great—great enough to raise thousands of colossal fortunes, but it ought, could and would be double what it is, had the owners of those fortunes more go-a-head dash, enterprise and public spirit, at least whenever great occasions for their display are offered them.

THE PEZZANA COMPANY.

HAMLET.

There is no poet whose works are so generally appreciated by people of all nations as Shakespeare. There has been no other man who has so well known how to teach philosophy in a drama. To comprehend Shakespeare fully, one must have attained the age when sentiment gives place to reflection, sometimes hard, generally just. Man's brutal passions, as displayed in Othello, Macbeth, or Shylock, can only be well understood by a person who is of the age to feel them.

Hamlet was performed on Wednesday last at the Politeama. To criticise a performance of that character by Rossi would be easy, because Rossi's idea of Hamlet was that of the world in general. The most learned men have written essays on this fine creation of Shakespeare. Rossi has written nothing, neither has Pezzana, but each of them has made me understand Hamlet better than a book of the most renowned author. Yet they dont agree in their interpretations of the character: Rossi represents Hamlet as a sensible man who plays the fool only when he thinks to gain his end by so doing. Madame Pezzana's opinion is that Hamlet is the victim of a delusion, which becomes a monomania; that he thinks to see the spirit of his father who calls upon him for vengeance (according to the actual idea of Shakespeare, who afterwards, probably, made changes in the play for its better representation on the stage.) One represents Hamlet as an intelligent man, the other as a madman.

Who shall decide, when doctors disagree?

For myself I will not venture to discuss the question, but, with all deference to Madame Pezzana, I must confess my preference for Rossi's theory. Nothwithstanding his delusion, the young prince was no ordinary man; he had in his brain a vein of philosophy, ideas in advance of the age in which he lived But is that a proof of madness? Was James Watt mad when the steam from a teakettle gave him ideas of which the development was destined to upturn the world?

However this may be, every word of Hamlet touches us, and the idea of his madness disappears entirely when one hears the great truths which from time to time he utters. His doubts—are they not those of all the world? Who can assert with certainty that after this life there is another?

Accepting then for the moment Mme. Pezzana's idea, I must compliment her on the excellent manner in which she has played the part, though I have a few observations to make which I know enough of Mme. Pezzana to feel confident will not be taken amiss. The lines 'Oh! that this too solid flesh would melt' etc, as also 'My father's spirit in arms! all is not well' were splendidly recited. Hamlet's action, when he thinks he sees his father's spirit, is finely conceived (I must observe here that the representation of the ghost was an absurdity, and it occurs to me that it would be an improvement not to allow the ghost to be seen at all by the audience). The scene of the oath was excellently played. Hamlet's abstracted manner when he is reading (act 2) and takes no notice of his friends, is very good, and so is his gracious manner of saying 'Gentlemen, you are welcome to Elsinore.' But the recitation with the comedians did not please me at all, for in my opinion, Mme. Pezzana gives way to too much stage gesticulation (the first actor was atrocious.)

In the 3rd Act the effect of the splendid soliloquy 'To be, or not to be,' splendidly as it was given by Mme. Pezzana, was quite spoiled by a number of ill-bred persons who had thought proper to linger in the cafe over their 'chopps' and cigarettes until Hamlet was on the stage and in the midst of the soliloquy entered the theatre noisily. I believe and express Mme. Pezzana's wishes in begging such people on another occasion to take their places previously to the commencement of this act. In the same act, the part, called the flute, ' 'Tis as easy as lying' etc was recited in a perfect manner. The acting between Hamlet and his mother did not please me. Hamlet is represented as too hard. I prefer Rossi's gentleness to his mother. However, in the lines, 'Mother, you have my father much offended,' Hamlet's style was perfect: that of his Royal mother was deplorable. The lines 'I do repent,' after Hamlet has killed Polonius, were recited with infinite pathos.

As regards the 4th Act, I regret that, as in all Italian translations, so much has been cut out. I will only note that the part of Ophelia, which in general was not well represented, was here carefully acted.

The lateness of the hour prevented me from seeing the last act.

I conclude by again complimenting Mme. Pezzana on her wonderful performance, rendered more extraordinary by the fact that the part of Hamlet has seldom been represented by a woman, and certainly I will venture to say, by no woman in such a splendid manner as by the accomplished actress to whom this brief notice is dedicated.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent)

April 28th.

Of course I availed myself of my recent visit to the Capital to spend a day in the Exhibition building, and I must say I passed an agreeable day of it. It is not my intention to particularise; in fact, in order to do that would require a much more prolonged examination than I was enabled to afford. Any remarks I may make must be more or less of a general character.

After going twice through the various sections, or departments, I became convinced of the fact that the Argentine manufactures are superior to those of the same nature of other South American nations. The articles that make a show in the native industry line are limited; they are mostly all from the capital. The provinces show absolutely nothing but the time-honored vicuña poncho and coarse jergas. The Exhibition in Cordoba has taught them nothing, except to manufacture spurious liquors, perhaps. The manufacturing spirit of the country is bounded by the limits of the municipality of the capital, and is almost entirely limited to foreigners. However, we need not regret this fact The children of these foreign artificers will be Argentines, and will possibly be better artizans than their fathers. I will here again express my old opinion that it was a great mistake to exclude European manufactures. Our artizans, seeing nothing superior in the Exhibition to their own productions, of course fancy they have arrived at perfection. The very principle of exhibitions has been violated in this instance. And after all it was a foolish thing to deprive the whole community of the great instructive pleasure of seeing gathered together in one building the wondrous articles of utility and luxury that are produced in the countries of Europe, and all to give the 'City of London' shop, and some tailors and shoemakers, a chance to make a splurge with their native work. And what does this work amount to? It makes one smile to walk through the capital department that the papers make so much of. It is very pretty to look at—the many large glass cases containing beautiful wax [illegible] with wonderful busts, and nothing of [illegible]eous dresses made by this murder reaches[illegible] of these dresses.

Mr Robert L. Cuttle, but they discovery made by The [illegible]ture. Mr published this morning, [illegible] is very artistic and very horrid, but we look for something higher in the way of industry. In fact, strictly speaking, the show of native industry in the Exhibition is limited to leather, furniture and spurious liquors. Seamstress and tailor work and crochet and sampler work are all pretty in their way, but hardly deserve a place in an Industrial Exhibition. Gen. Roca's dress-coat might have better graced a tailor's window.

The manufactory of boots and shoes in Buenos Aires has been brought to great perfection. Brazil and the Banda Oriental do not equal the work of the former by a long way. But we remarked in this department, as in most others of the capital section, out-and-out luxury is sought for. Amongst the boots and shoes on exhibit one looks in vain for a case or a show of merchantable boots for commerce. All are made for the aristocratic feet of high life of one of the most extravagant cities in the world.

The show of leather is very fair and does credit to the country; but here again, it would have been useful to our manufacturers had they been able to compare their leathers with the very much superior French article. It would have been an incentive to renewed efforts to perfect their work. In leathers some of the best are exhibited by our friend, Mr. Colli, of Rosario.

In saddlery we are also superior to Brazil, Chile and Uruguay, whose saddles are not to compare with those made in Buenos Aires.

In furniture we are also in advance of our neighbours. Perhaps in no other industry has the Buenos Aires artizan made such rapid progress. The furniture made is really splendid. Of course it is made by skilled European workmen, but that dont matter—it is made in the country, and often of native woods. We still have to remark that the extravagance is such that artizans lose sight of everything else but 'lujo.' While they are rivalling the Parisians in making a boudsir suite, the Americans have monopolised the whole trade of the country in the useful and indispensable article, the common cane-bottom chair, of which I did not see a single specimen in the Exhibition. To me it would have had more significance than all the grand sculptured sideboards in the show.

There is a great lack of small but useful articles of manufacture. It was a pleasure to find in one corner of the capital section a lot of beautifully made lasts, all from native woods. These made a much more grateful impression on me than the case of five hundred dollar ladies' boots alongside. The one indicated a commercial spirit of utility, the other simply extravagant luxury.

One of the very few articles of manufacture in the capital that has acquired a really commercial importance is the biscuits, 'galletitos' of the three or four establishments that make them. The biscuist of Bagley and the Union are a success, and as a proof of it one has only to see the enormous shipments made to all the provinces. This is one of the few instances in which native industry has competed successfully with the foreign.

I shall write you another letter on the Exhibition, and that will exhaust my stock of generalities.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Show of sheep in connection with the Exhibition opens to-day. It is not large, but we hear that it is excellent in quality.

The Equateur's mails were not delivered yesterday, at least we got none. No steamer we suppose. The news is not very startling, but there are many uneasy signs in the European air, especially in Italy. The Free Thinkers are going to hold a Conferenee in Rome, the Lord Mayor of which city has most imprudently lent them the Capitol for the ventilation of their ideas. The Pope is said to be preparing an Allocution in reference to this gathering, from which, it is feared, trouble may spring.

The Brazilian Times states that Dr Robert H Gunning has been nominated as Dignitary of the Imperial Order of the Rose. We congratulate our countryman on this signal proof of his talent and worth.

Hamlet will be repeated at the Politeama to-night, and the occasion will afford our readers another opportunity of judging for themselves the merits of Sra. Pezzana. Luis XI. was given last night, in which Alexander Salvini (brother of the celebrated Thomas Salvini) acted the principal role.

The Parque station is, it seems, not to be abolished after all. The Western Railway Directors intend to run a tramway from Plaza Once along the old railway line to Plaza Parque. A good idea, but it will prevent some additional cash from flowing into Messrs. Lacroze's pockets, which, by the way, are already bursting.

Did any of our readers happen to see the electric light on board the German steamer Theben in the Roads the other night? Far as she was out, it could be seen distinctly from the beach and had a beautiful effect.

The public have been fairly knocked off their feet by the publication of the recent decision of the Provincial Tribunals to the effect that the forgery of foreign coins not declared as of 'curso legal' in this country is not a crime !!! This beats anything we have heard of yet. Where are we going to stop?

The Exhibition Committee have approved of the rules for raffling the objects on view. 50,000 tickets will be issued for every raffle; each ticket will be divided into fifths (in the same manner as lottery tickets). The price of each ticket is $50, or $10 for a fifth. The chief prize will be $500,000 m|c. Every third ticket drawn must win a prize, which will consist of articles exhibited valued at market rate. Some horses, bulls, and sheep of the rural section will be included in the list of prizes.

We read in the Rio papers with great pleasure that Mr. J Whyte, formerly manager of the Yerua estancia in Entre Rios, and now proprietor of the famed hotel at Tijuca, near Rio, has, in conjunction with Mr G. Kemp, obtained from the Brazilian Government a concession for a railway on the Riggenbach system, from Boa Vista to Tijuca, This will add to the attractions of Tijuca, and we must congratulate Mr Whyte on securing such a valuable concession.

In the hospital at Cordoba there is now a man with two heads, and the doctors are going to cut one of them off, to save his life. The second head did not begin to grow till the man was turned 40. Let not our native colleagues shout 'Mulhall for ever!' over this story as they did over that of the barking girl, which we took from one of the most distressingly 'serio' of all our city colleagues, just as we take this from a Rosario paper, which had it in turn from the Eco of the City of Doctors.

The members of the Academia Literaria hold a session to-day at the San Salvador College. The meetings of this Society are always most interesting, and but that we have to attend the inauguration of the Rural Show at the Exhibition, we should feel the greatest pleasure in accepting the kind invitation we have been favoured with.

A Britisher in Rosario had a tremendous fight with three burglars the other night and came off victorious. On going home at night he found his room all in disorder and (what no woman has ever yet found, though on the look out for it since the Creation) a man under the bed! The burglar jumped out and attacked him with an iron bar. Our countryman grappled with him, but while they were struggling, two more burglars entered. John Bull never shrinks from odds, so, with a desperate effort the first burglar was shut into a closet and the key turned on him. Then the intrepid Englishman faced the new comers, and, with two Tom Sayers' blows straight from the shoulder, floored them. The police were then called in and our victorious countryman rested from his labours,

It rained in torrents at Salto on Friday evening, at Chascomus, Patagones and other places. Nevertheless it was a mere drop of water in a spoon to what the camp requires. In the Interior the drought is terrible. It also rained a little on Friday at the following places:—Las Flores, Ajo, Ranchos, Ferrari, Tandil, Rauch, Juarez, Cañuelas, Dolores, Giles, Navarro, Carmen de Areco, Ensenada, Magdalena, Saladillo, San Vicente, Mercedes, Capilla del Señor, Lojan, Monte and San Martin.

In our supplement will be found something quite fresh, from the New York World, about the convict Lamson, who was to be hanged on the 4th. inst.

The man who was murdered on Mr Luis Booth's estancia at San Nicolas was an old North American named Haines. Two gauchos entered his 'puesto' at the 'oracion' and fired two shots at him with revolvers, killing him instantly. They then mounted their horses and fled, but were captured some hours later on the Arroyo Seco.

The attendance at the Exhibition has now dwindled down to about 1,000 per day on week days, and Sunday is the only day that pays. We fear that as the winter advances the visitors will become still fewer, as, in spite of the numerous gas lights, there is a decidedly North Pole feel in the building, especially on windy nights.

Official immigration has so miserably broken down here that some new system is required. We strongly recommend our landed proprietors who want to quintuple the value of their property to read and take a hint from the following news from Switzerland. Remember what Mr. Casado has accomplished in Santa Fe :—

"A society is forming here for the purpose of purchasing land in the United States, preparing it for cultivation, making roads, constructing railways, and selling or leasing lands to Swiss emigrants. The emigration to the United States from Swiss sources is by no means insignificant. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1881, there were received no less than 11,293 immigrants from this country. Considering that all Switzerland (22 cantons) had a total population of only 2,776,035 in 1877, the emigration is quite lively already, but not sufficient to relieve the country of its surplus inhabitants. The number of births in 1879 was 89,692."

We see that one of our colleagues who some time ago fell foul of our hawse because we said that Bahia Blanca was a decidedly crabby place now admits that there is a 'cangrejal intransitable' right in front of the place.

The banquet to Governor Roach to-morrow evening will be gorgeous business—tickets a 1,000$.

The tramway companies should be overhauled vigorously by the Lord Mayor for the wretched way they feed their horses. The poor brutes are stuffed with green hay and bran, but get no maize; the result is fermentation in the stomach, and the animals are most offensive, so much so that even a short drive in a tram car is a most unpleasant ordeal. The whole population complains of the nuisance. Far more work could be got out of the horses if they were fed properly.

Awful tragedy at Guamini! Nine persons—man wife and seven children—all found in their rancho with their throats cut! A gentleman who was galloping across the camp on his way to Buenos Aires made the horrid discovery and informed the police. What a crime!

We are glad to observe that our old friend, Mr. Leon Shopinski, Inspector of Post Office service, is making a raid on the Provincial postal contractors for non-delivery of correspondence, &c. The first 'caballero' to fall into his hands is the contractor for carrying the mails from San Pedro Station, on the Tucuman Railway, to Santiago del Estero. A heavy fine has brought the latter to a sense of his duties. The public weal would be materially increased if a few gentlemen of Mr. Shopinski's 'stamp' were quartered in and round the city.

To-day was the close of the great month of April, perhaps the greatest month that we as yet have had in Nat. Bank shares. The 'vencimientos' market on the black board amounted to 134,036, more than double the capital of the bank, but this only represented the sales during business hours, whereas the chief business during the month in the stock was done at afterhours frequently of an evening 10,000 shares were sold in half an hour, and none of those gigantic transactions figure in the foregoing. Thus it is that we estimate the total Bank share liquidation this month at 268,000 shares, more than four times the entire share issue of the Bank. It is not probable, however, that we shall have again such a month in this wond ous stock. Speculation was far too rampant this month, for even the capabilities of the market, and but for the fact that 2 giant outsiders fought the bull and bear battle, the Bolsa would not have been able to meet such differences. During business hours to-day the market was filled with rumours and news of every kind, calculated to affect the market. It was said that one of the Italian Syndicate, owner of 15 000 shares, and having the right to use 5000 shares, had applied for the shares, when he was informed he could withdraw the whole 15,000 shares, calculating upon which the party in question had sold the shares. To-day, however, there was some hitch in the delivery; and the matter was left to the decision of the lawyers of the respective parties who both agreed that the party in question was entitled to his 15,000 shares; still up to 4 o'clock there ruled such great uncertainty about the delivery of the shares before Monday, that those who knew what was going on were nervous as to the upshot, as in the event of the shares not coming forward prices would advance considerably.

The Bolsa liquidator established the following prices for the month's liquidation.

Gold	22.10
Series A	100
Do B	84
Nat. B. shares	111½

The first news on the making of the ring to-day was the failure of a native broker whose deficit was put down at 9000 pats. This rather unwelcome news caused much uneasiness as it was feared it would lead to others. The ring, when it opened, trembled; no one sold short, fearing that the shares would not be delivered, and prices advanced, whilst no one dared to buy without having the money to pay. We never before saw the market so nervous as to-day. The result was that only the business required to close the liquidation either way was attempted.

Gold ruled hard and scarce, opening at 10 cents prem., dropping to 5 cents, and closing at 10 cents, the sales were 191,979. Gold was secured for June to-day at 10 cents prem., and many parties who had gold payments to make paid in paper with an addition of 10 cents.

Cedulas ruled harder than they thought in the morning; there was no large amount of stock thrown on the market, prices opened for A at 100½, and closed at ½. In series E 158 100 opening at 84½, and closing at 84, and for end of month 40,000 sold at 84½. The 'vencimientos' were very small:

It will be seen from the above that a great falling off there was in the business in Series E and what a gigantic increase in Nat. Bank shares.

The great news on 'Change to-day was the sale of a newly discovered copper mine in the Banda Oriental to Don Gregorio Lezama; the price is not stated, but Mr Lezama has sent down to Maldonado two mining Engineers to take possession of the property. The mine, to judge by the samples which we saw on the Bolsa to-day, is one of the richest copper mines in these countries, it is situated within two leagues of the port of Maldonado and close to the Pan de Azucar, we shall probably have further details about the property in a few days; the discovery is regarded in Montevideo as one of the greatest importance.

Argentine affairs in London are viewed very favorably, and the success of the new Provincial Loan by the Messrs Baring at 92, shows how very high the River Plate credit stands. In a letter received by the mail from London, from a very high financial authority, there is much said about the rising credit of the Argentine Republic, and Dr. Plaza's name is so much mentioned in the letter in question, and so connected with our prosperity, that we make the following extract: "The appointment of Dr Plaza as one of your new Argentine Ministers has given great satisfaction to everyone here connected with the Republic, the only regret is that he is not named to the finance department, in which in former years he displayed such great ability, and we all here have such thorough confidence in his honor and intelligence, that had the President named him Minister of Finance instead of Foreign Affairs, people here would have been better pleased." The foregoing paragraph, whilst most flattering to Dr Plaza, is in nothing disparaging to Dr Romero, who at present fills the post of Minister of Hacienda. The holders of Argentine Bonds in London have not forgotten in the crisis year how very ably Dr Plaza directed Argentine Finances and how steadfastly he maintained the credit of the Nation and paid his way, when everyone thought the service of the Foreign debt would have to be stopped for a while. Dr Romero was not then in the Government, and the Bondholders in London when they heard of Dr Plaza re-entering the cabinet, naturally wished to see him in the Hacienda, in which department he first made a name for himself in London.

The new consignatario firm of Machain & Ramella was announced to-day.

Don Carlos Carranza is we hear the gerente of the new Rioja lottery played in this city.

Mr R A Wilkinson C. E. of Salto, Buenos Aires was welcomed on Change, he returns to Salto to-morrow.

The French Mail letters were delivered very late and after the closing Bolsa hour.

The British Barque Ana has been placed on the berth to load for N. York in Barracas.

Telegrams give great rain in the town of Salto but not so much in the surrounding camps; rain now is gold.

On Monday there will be a special meeting of the Municipality to consider the following :
1st Repairs Mercado del Plata.
2nd Sancho and Martinez new market San Cristobal.
3rd H Stewart's reclamo, Florida market.
4th Sale of Argentine Bank certificates.
5th Mr Arraga's Telephone project.
6th Settlement of lawsuit with J Alcantara.
7th Lord Mayor's vaqura project.
8th Wine and liquor project of Board of Health.

At aftershours there was much of a pause in the Room, and although prices ruled stiff yet, the fact that more business was doing for May than for cash showed that the bulk of the day's business was closed up. On the liquidator's counter millions and millions of money were piled up, but there was no great show of Bank shares on the counter, and people began to think that shares would be short. About 12,000 shares were taken up by the public in various lots from 200 to 2000 shares, but there was great complaint about difficulty in getting change for shares, as most of the certificates are for 100 shares, and small certificates for 10 shares could not be had.

The close of the day's business proved the most wondrous surprise to even the very brokers. At half past 4 o'clock the auctioneer broker mounted the table and announced that he would buy 40 shares for the liquidator, sold at 113. The auctioneer then put on his hat and bid the brokers good afternoon, which provoked roars from the crowd who expected that 10,000 shares would be sold. Everything about the liquidation was surprising. The broker who was to take up 5 to 6,000 shares actually delivered 1,000 shares, and the Bohemian King that was to smash the whole market with the delivery of 13,000 shares, first took out 1,700 shares and next came back and delivered 2,700 shares. We saw his partner leave the hall at 5 p.m bowed down with the pile of money he took off, some5 millions in paper. Many parties expecting to see shares at 110 or lower, came to the Bolsa with ready money to buy at the auction, they had to go back as they came. One outsider brought 100,000 pats R M.D., and when he could'nt buy offered to lend it on stocks, but no one took the money. It is plain to all from the day's experience that there is a superabundance of money in the Bolsa for the stock and that some 12,000 shares have been scattered from the great syndicate amongst the various speculators and capitalists in the market.

12,000 Cedulas Series A sold at afterhours at 100½.

The sale of 2½ leagues of land in Maipu at the rate of $750,000 per league is reported; Messrs Capello & Co. buyers.

The Rosario has arrived from London with 12,000 tons cargo and 70 passengers.

Dr Luro who has so many friends on 'Change has been elected chairman of the Provincial chambers.

Congress will be opened on the 3rd or 4th of May.

In exchange nothing done to-day, and in general business very little.

The collections and payments were very small, and the produce business of the week insignificant.

The sales at afterhours were—
Gold—
Nothing done.
Cedulas—

The pioneer steamer of a new Austrian line, the str. Narenta, has arrived; she belongs to a rich and numerous line of steamers, sailing from Trieste to different parts of the globe, and now the experiment is being made of extending a branch to the River Plate. We attach much importance to her arrival, as the surplus population of Austria needs the River Plate for new homes. The Austrians make good colonists and settlers, strong hardy, and industrious; they have thrived wherever they settled in the U. States, and we feel certain, if they come in any large numbers, will prove equally successful here. It would be very desirable, if the gentlemen who come out in this steamer to report on the country, would make a trip to Patagones and ascend the Rio Negro, which after all is the most desirable spot in the whole Republic for agricultural European colonies, the weather and climate being more like that of Europe than any other part. The fertility of the valley of the Rio Negro needs no comment, in no other part do the farmers have such crops and with such certainty, as they never suffer down there from locusts or drought. We hope therefore that an effort will be made to get the Austrian emigrants to the Rio Negro.

Messrs Ebbeke & Dickelmann will sell to-morrew, May 1st, Mr Puente's furniture, including a fine lot of English sporing pictures. In yesterday's issue it was erroneously stated that the auction would be held to-day. Parties interested will find advertisement in another column.

Another immense tract of land is now offering for sale in the market, 125 square leagues of land in Santiago del Estero, and the price asked for the land is only 600 fts. per league.

It appears that all the lands sold by Sr. Canepa at Baltar & Quesada's auction mart last year, are now situated in the Province of Santa Fe and not Santiago del Estero. Governor Iriondo says that he never sold a perch of land to Canepa and hence the titles to these fine lands are at the moment not very clear, of course Santiago del Estero will have to indemnify the purchasers of these lands and give them other lands in other parts, unless both Provinces arrange between themselves not to disturb the present owners.

The rain it is hoped has proved more outside than in town, as here we have had as yet, nothing worth calling rain, but telegrams from the South yesterday stated it was raining very hard down there, the storm appears to be coming from the Falkland Islands which is always a severe point and means a 'temporal.'

Mr Perkins our talented Rosario correspondent, took leave of his friends on Change to-day and started for Rosario after a pleasant exhibition trip down here of a week.

We take the following interesting figures from Mr H Allgeil's Weekly Review of Agricultural Produce—

"Arrivals of the week—

Wheat	878,633 kilos.
Flour	309,916
Maize	523,809
Flax	162,710

Besides there have arrived 1,789 bags of wheat, the wheight of which has not yet been determined.

"Exports during the week—
Maize..... 400,500 kilos.
Linseed ... 180,000 do

"Wheat—

"The quantity arrived this week is larger than last week, and prices for good classes have risen from $5 to 8; inferior classes remain steady at previous prices. Advices from Rosario shew much firmness, and prices are even higher there than here. It is difficult to obtain reliable information as to the stock on hand in Sta. Fe; but it is evident that good qualities are scarce, while inferior classes are plentiful. Prices average as follows :—
Costs, according to class and weight per fanega 140-180.
Azul, do 100-160.
Salado, do 100-145
Rosario and Sta. Fe threshed by machinery per 9 ar. 150-175
Do do by mares do 130-160
Candeal per fan. 120-175.

"Flour—

"Millers complain bitterly of the market, which is inconsistent with the high prices demanded for wheat. Few lots of city wheat can be sold at $30, as some parties offer large lots at from $28-29. Prices :—
Flour from city mills per ar. $28-30
Do Rosario and Sta. Fe, 23-27
Mendoza and San Juan, 19-21

"Maize—

"Much animation this week, particularly in yellow classes. Prices :—
Maize in cob per fanega $48-52
Stalled yellow, new, 42-46
Do, white, 42-44

"Linseek—

"The market continues to shew a decline in prices; a few lots sold at from $6-8 without It is strange that present low prices do not tempt exporters."

Messrs Woodgate Brothers, shipbrokers, in their circular for the mail, give the following exports for the month of April, 1882 :—

	41,629 salted ox and cow hides
	29,919 salted horse hides

There cannot therefore be much left, and shipments by steamers will now be chiefly confined to maize and other rough articles until next November, unless any considerable quantity of sheepskins offer.

The mails from Rio bring the following news :—
Exchange—
Banks drew at 21d until the 10th inst., when they came out at 21⅛. The rate was again raised on the 12th to 21⅛, at which, however, the demand proved too strong, and on the afternoon of the 13th all banks retired to 21⅛.
Private paper has been more abundant and passed to a good amount at 21⅛ and 21 7/16, there being now very little paper offering and no suitable bills at 21⅛.

The business in francs has been on a moderate scale at Bank rates of 447 and 450 reis. Private paper has been negotiated at 442 to 444 reis per franc.

The Board of Brokers' report of the business done in the last 16 days of March was :— £444,023 at 20⅞ to 21⅛d.
Fr.847,541 at 455 to 447 reis.
Rm.41,500 at 562 to 556 reis.

Freights—

Owing to great competition of steamers, rates have considerably declined for Europe, as well as for the U. States. Sailing vessels, on the contrary, are exceedingly scarce, and rates for same very firm.

Steamers—

London	40/
Liverpool	40/
Antwerp	30/
Hamburg	30/
Havre	35 fr.
Bordeaux	40 fr.
Marseilles	40 fr.
New York	30 cts.

Sailing vessels, nominal—

Channel f.o.	40/ -45/
Lisbon f.o.	42/6-50/
Gibraltar f.o.	42/6-50/
U. States, North	20/ -30/
" South	22/6-30/

The following is the latest from Rio Grande :
Freights—
We had no arrivals of shipping until the last day or two, when some six vessels, all light draft, crossed the bar. There has been a good demand for vessels in all directions and rates have ruled firm; vessels are, however, still strictly limited to 9½ feet draft of water. A large fleet of vessels went to sea on the 18th ult., many of them drawing 9½ to 10 feet. The bar so far shows no signs of permanent improvement.

We have received the following for publication in this column :—

B. Aires, April 27th, 1882

To the Editor of the Standard,
Dear Sir,
Allow me to make some remarks about the way the reclamations for the "Contribucion Directa" are attended to—

A 'terreno desocupado' belonging to my 'patron' has been charged about 30 o/o higher than before, and I was charged with the reclamation.

After having waited about 3 hours I was admitted to the sanctum of the Jury and told they would take it into consideration and to come back next day.

Now there are "two next days" gone on each of which I attended from about 11 a.m. to 2½-3 p.m. in order to be told at last "su asunto aun no se ha resuelto".

On last of this month the term for any reclamation expires, and I have see a good number of people in my case; and if the Jury continues at this 'Lobster Speed' there will be more 'multas' than anything else.

Yours truly,
CLERK OF A TAX PAYER.

BAYARD Y MUNICIPAL, de sangre pura fueron introducidos al pais por la Compania, comprados en el castillo Mille Secourse cerca de Burdeos.
PRESIDENTE tambien puro, nacio en el establecimiento Matanzas arriba mencionado.

Creemos inutil el entrar en mayores detalles sobre la cria Percheron, que es una de las razas mas convenientes para la cruza con yeguas del pais, pues son animales fuertes, elegantes, fogosos y al mismo tiempo de una docilidad que no se encuentran en ningun otro.

Tenemos una prueba de ello en las varias yuntas que se ven en las calles de la ciudad procedentes de la cria del senor Cambaceres, unico criador de esta raza que ha espendido hasta ahora sus productos al publico.

La Compania del Tramway, hasta la fecha habia unicamente espuesto sus crias en varias exposiciones, obteniendo siempre premios, pero sin ofrecerlas en venta; hoy que lo hacen tienen los criadores una brillante ocasion para hacerse de animales de primer orden.

Los caballos y yeguas pueden verse en las caballerizas de la Compania en las 5 Esquinas y dos dias antes del remate en nuestra casa San Martin 51.

THE LAMSON CASE.

Dr Stevenson, F. R. C. P. who conducted the analysis at the instance of the Home Office, Dr Dupre assisting him, will be examined tomorrow to show if possible that death resulted from aconitine poisoning. Dr Stevenson experimented upon himself with minute doses of the aconite found in the viscera of Percy John. Aconite produces when placed upon the tongue a peculiar sensation and causes death probably by paralyzing the heart. It acts apparently as a direct poison upon all the nitrogenous tissues; that is, all the tissues connected with life. One-seventeenth of a grain and probably less will cause death. In one of the capsules left by Lamson for the boy there was 83 of a grain, or eight fatal doses. The analysts have already given the result of their experiments with mice and of their examination of the various powders and capsules left or sent by Lamson for the boy at different times prior to his death. The purchase by Lamson of two grains of aconite on the eve of his leaving London for Wimbledon is to be proved by the two chemist's assistants who sold it to him. Some of the capsules contained Morse's preparation of aconite, which appears by the label on the package to have been purchased in New York. Stevenson's testimony will be of the highest importance.

There is no probability now that the case can be given to the jury before Thursday of next week.

Saratoga, March 10.

A person here, connected with the Schuyler family and well acquainted with Dr Lamson, says that beyond a doubt Dr Lamson's brain was affected while he was here last year. He thinks the trouble with Dr Lamson's health began in 1877. His health was broken while he was doing hospital service in the Turco-Russian war, and he returned home from the East dangerously ill with typhoid fever. From the hardships he underwent in 1877 he has never completely recovered. Attention being called to the fact that in the accounts published of Dr Lamson's examination and committal no mention has been made of his father or other relatives appearing or giving support to him, this informant in reply took from a drawer a photograph of the Rev. Mr. Lamson, and said warmly: 'Is that the face of a man who would abandon his son like that? No, he will bide his time, and when the time comes to speak, he will speak. No, he is not the kind of a man to abandon an unfortunate son, nor would his mother desert him either.' (It will be seen from Mr Jennings's cable despatch above printed that this confidence in the father and mother of Dr Lamson was well-warranted. Ed. World.)

When Dr Lamson was at Saratoga a letter was received from his father which contains a number of questions in regard to his behavior. These questions indicated, it is said, that the Rev. Mr Lamson suspected his son's mental condition to be alarming, and this leads the family here to believe that strong evidence will be introduced at the trial, or afterwards in case of a conviction, to demonstrate that Dr. Lamson has not been responsible for his actions for a long time past. All who saw him at Saratoga say he always spoke of his relatives by marriage—the Johns—in terms of affection.

A reporter of The World called yesterday afternoon upon a near relative of Dr. George Lamson. 'I am connected with him,' said the gentleman, 'but have had no intercourse with either him or his father for a great many years.'

'The World is inclined to think that Dr Lamson, now accused of murder in London, is tainted with hereditary insanity. What do you know about him or his family?'

'I don't believe that anything I might say could aid him in any way, and I don't know anything. As for insanity, if there be any in his blood it must have come from his mother. There is no hereditary insanity on my side of the family and never has been. You know his grandmother married Robert Schuyler under very peculiar circumstances and no one knew for a long time that they had been married. Her whole life and history were enshrouded in mystery that no one was ever able to penetrate. I know nothing whatever about her or her antecedents, but if there is any insanity in Dr. Lamson's blood I should attribute it to her and not to Robert Schuyler or the Lamsons' After Schuyler's death the family became separated and went to ruin, as The World has shown. There were several children, one of whom the Rev. Dr. Lamson married and took to Paris, where Dr. Lamson was born. Mrs Schuyler may have been tainted with insanity that was transmitted to her daughter and so reached young Lamson. The boy was brought up in Paris and had a thoroughly French education. At the age of twenty he came here and studied medicine. After his graduation I believe he practised medicine in Tarrytown before returning to Paris. Since then I have heard nothing of them until the news of this murder reached me.'

Mr Robert L. Cutting said: 'The discovery made by The World and published this morning, that Dr. Lomson, the murderer of Percy Malcolm John, is a grandson of Robert Schuyler, was a revelation to me, and I believe to all New Yorkers, well as Mr Schuyler and his family have been known. Although I knew Mr Robert Schuyler well as a business man and a man in society, I knew nothing of his being a married man until the developments made by his sudden disappearance in 1854. I never heard any reason assigned for his keeping his marriage secret. He was, before the over-issue of the New York and New Haven stock, as The World has said, considered one of the most careful, upright and energetic business men in the city. Everybody had the same confidence in him that old Commodore Vanderbilt had. I was in Newport that summer and a near friend of mine came up there from the city on July 3. There had been a good deal of talk about the heavy sales of New York and New Haven stock and we talked the matter over with the view of purchasing, but finally decided not to buy any of the stock until we could learn something of the source of the sales that had been made. On Monday we returned to the city and of course, found out all about it. Mr Schuyler's over-issue of that stock was a blow which his associates did not recover from for a long time. The concealment of his marriage from everybody while he was raising a family right among us is, I believe, without a parallel in this or any other American city."

Mr Barlow on the over-issue of Stock. Mr S L M Barlow, who was found in his office by a World reporter yesterday afternoon, said: 'Yes, I have read the story in this morning's World of the remarkable life here of Dr Lamson's grandfather, Mr Robert Schuyler. The story as told is so complete and accurate, so far as my knowledge goes, that I can add but little to it. I never learned anything in regard to Mrs Schuyler, or Mrs Spicer as she was known, except that she was a New York lady and of good family. What reason was there for keeping the marriage secret? It was not, in my opinion, a mere whim. He was not a man of whims or notions. Mr Schuyler's mother, who doted on this son, would not give her consent to his marrying any lady. She wanted him at home with her. As she grew older she came to look upon his possible marriage with horror. He married, however, and it was, I believe, solely to keep the fact from his mother that the marriage was kept secret. Mr Schuyler's friends have always claimed that the over-issue of stock by him was not done in his private interests, but to secure the completion of the road. The road at that time was under heavy extraordinary expenses on account of the Norwalk disaster, which occurred, you will remember, in 1853, when a New York and New Haven express train ran into an open draw, causing a loss of fifty lives. It was a heavy drain on the funds of the road to meet these expenses while still at work completing its line, and that is what led to the over-issue. I do not believe he used any of the proceeds for himself or lost it in speculation. The investigation showed that his brother, George L Schuyler, had no part in or knowledge of the matter, and the latter retired at once from business life. He acted as purchasing agent for the Government abroad during the war and since then has lived quietly on his place near Dobb's Ferry."

Mr Joseph Larocque said: 'I found the tale in The World this morning a very interesting one, but I can give no information about any of the matter in it. At the time I was connected with the firm of Bowdoin Barlow & Larocque. Mr Bowdoin was one of the assignees and during the investigation I was placed on the stand. Mr Noyes examined me very cautiously for nearly an hour for fear that I would give some evidence he did not want, but finally I told him that I had never seen Mr Schuyler or any member of the family, and so was allowed to go. I really know nothing about the matter. The courts decided that the railroad company was responsible for the over-issue, so that no one else lost anything by it.

Thurlow Weed's Recollections. 'I knew Robert Schuyler well,' said Mr Thurlow Weed yesterday, 'and I remember the excitement his downfall occasioned and the surprise and regret caused in the community that one who had been esteemed so highly should have fallen so utterly and so suddenly as he did. No man stood higher in the community than he, and I have known and know now a great many of his name and family who are still highly respected in New York and elsewhere. Yes, I remember all about his dual life, as bachelor and, as it afterwards turned out, a married man and the father of a family, and I recollect all about the mystery of the mortuary chapel at Saratoga, and the legends connected with it. I have not yet read the article in The World, but I shall have it read to me as soon as I have time. I take the paper every morning, but I am almost blind myself, and much of my time is taken up by callers. My old journalistic instincts are as acute as ever, and I am really sorry I cannot give The World something about the case of Robert Schuyler, but as I lived in Albany at the time I was not sufficiently familiar with the facts and circumstances to be able, at present, to do so."

Peter Cooper on the dangers of debt. 'Oh, yes,' said the venerable Peter Cooper, 'I remember Robert Schuyler well, and recollect his defalcation and subsequent flight from New York. I knew him, but was not intimate with him. Previous to his downfall he was trusted by everybody in New York, and everybody who knew him thought him a man worthy to be trusted. I learned one important lesson early in my business life and that was that debt and demoralization are too near neighbours for me to keep them company. I have gone upon the principle never to have anything to do with any system which has bank accommodations for its aim or foundations; and if I was compelled to use notes in my business I always allowed them to remain in bank until they matured and then used the money. Although Mr Schuyler's downfall was occasioned by speculation in Wall street with money belonging to somebody else, the principle is the same, and the result in one case is just about as inevitable as in the other.'—N. Y. World.
